PLEASE NOTE:

Real ID Act Compliance: Effective July 21, 2014, all US Government Agencies are required to adhere to the Federal REAL ID Act phase two requirements for access to Federal facilities. The Act will impact Visitors to NASA facilities using state-issued ID to access the Center. Only driver's licenses or identifications cards from states that meet REAL ID standards may be used for Visitor access. Current (as of March 8, 2016) noncompliant states and territories whose driver's licenses do not meet the Real ID standards are: America Samoa, Illinois, Minnesota, Missouri, and Washington. Visitors with driver's licenses from these states will be required to present an alternate form of identification for unescorted access. In addition to Real ID complaint driver's licenses, other acceptable forms of identification for access include Federal employee badges, passports, or military identification cards. Visitors without acceptable identity documents will require an escort in order to obtain access to the facility.

Instructions for Picking up Badge and Accessing Building 33: Approved visitors will need to pick up their badge from our security office, located in building 9. This building is located on the right directly before the main gate off Greenbelt Road. Visitors can park in the small parking lot located on the right as you enter Goddard Road. Inside there is a small desk where visitors will sign in, present their identifying documentation and receive your badge. Next, the visitor will drive through the main gate and present their badge and ID to the officer. The visitor will then drive to building 33 where the Hydrological Sciences Laboratory is located. The meeting will be held in H114.
